

Keys to a Happy New Year

1. A Call to _____ (Lev. 23:23-25)

“Rosh Hashana” - lit. “_____ of the _____”

“Feast of _____” - Blowing the Shofar _____ Horn -
Reminds us of Abraham’s Obedience in Binding Isaac

10 days of petition up until Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement)

2. A Call to _____ (Lev. 29:1-6)

God is _____ on His Throne

Shofar is used in _____, too

He created us (Rosh Hashana - trad. Day of Creation)

He rules over us

Blowing the horn reminds us to be penitent, reverent, and obedient

“_____ is _____; _____ are _____”

Application:

Time for repentance - recognize and confess your sins, weaknesses, areas of temptation, inability Repent. Confess. Acknowledge your weakness.

Time for recognition - God is God. He sits enthroned on High, He recognizes our weakness, knows our frame, willing to forgive, strengthens us, gives us hope and victory in the year to come.

Accept your weakness. Accept His Strength. Ask for His help.
Depend on Him.