

Habakkuk: A Journey from “ _____ ” to “ _____ ”

Chapter 1 : The Personal _____ of a “ _____ ” Prophet

I. Two Questions that Should _____ Us

A. How Long?

1. Implies we don't have the _____ to stop this
2. Implies _____ aren't in control, He is.

B. Why?

1. Implies we don't have a _____ assessment of things
2. Implies we don't have adequate _____ or _____

II. Two Accusations that show our _____

A. “You don't hear!”

1. God You don't even know what's happening!
- or-
2. God You don't even care what's happening!

B. “You don't save!”

1. God You are _____ to help
2. God You are _____ to help

These prideful, arrogant judgments set us up for a confrontation with God

Application: In this world of never-ending injustice, pain, and suffering caused by the broken, fallen state of humanity, will you choose Humility or Arrogance? The reality is that you're choosing your God, either: (1) yourself, or (2) The all-powerful, all-knowing Creator Who gave Himself for you and is ever-present and ever-available to take control of all that you humbly yield to Him and in exchange give you a peace that does not need to know and does not need to control.
