

The 2 weapons that every Christian should wield -- Philippians 4:4-7

1. _____ (4:4-5)
  - a. Some Christians are _____, judgmental and dissatisfied.
  - b. Their life is marked by “_____” for others
  - c. They haven’t learned how to Rejoice (Acts 2:46-47; 3:8; 4:21; 5:41-42; 8:39; Acts 16:25)

2. _____ (4:6-7)
  - a. Some Christians are _____, unsettled in heart and mind.
  - b. Their life is marked by _____ for earthly things (Matt. 6)
  - c. They haven’t learned how to pray (Acts 1:14; 2:42, 4:24, 29-31; 6:4; 12:5-6 [the peace that surpasses all understanding], 12; 13:1-3; 16:13-14, 25)

Application: To avoid becoming either of these, learn to wield these two necessary weapons of maturing Christians:

- Learn how to Rejoice! (Worship is a lifestyle. We should be marked by exulting and praise. Our corporate worship should include rejoicing.)
- Learn how to Pray! (Don’t ‘start your day with prayer’-- and then leave it behind. Don’t have a Quiet Time just to check it off your list. Prayer is the constant, ongoing conversation with the One who is near.)
